REDEEMER

2020

Welcome to Redeemer University's yearbook for 2019-2020! We, the Yearbook staff, hope that you will enjoy looking over this book today and in the future, remembering your time at Redeemer. We want to thank the many people who have helped us produce the yearbook, including all those who sent us pictures and quotes to use. While we have done our best to ensure names are all spelled correctly, mistakes do happen; we apologize in advance for any errors that you find. We hope this book will bring back many great memories of the year.

~ Yearbook Staff 2020

THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Welcome to the 2020 addition of Anno Domini, Redeemer's annual yearbook!

Thank you to Senior Editor, Emily Talsma, and the rest of the yearbook staff for all the work they have put into telling the story of our year together. As years progress, I know you will return to this book to reflect on your memories of Redeemer and the things you have learned.

We are also thankful for the supporters who have encouraged us throughout the year with their prayers and donations as we strive to serve God faithfully in our mission to develop the next generation of leaders who reflect the love and hope of Christ wherever they are called.

Redeemer's theme this year was, "Come and see." We encouraged one another to see what Jesus is doing at Redeemer, and through the faculty, staff, and students of Redeemer in restoring the world around us. It is such a blessing to be part of what He is doing. We focused on the Gospel of John through our chapel services and devotions. May we continue to see for ourselves, and also to point the way for others to see as well.

While the year did not end as any of us anticipated or might have chosen, God has provided so many blessings. Even in trying times and disruption, we are reminded of the blessings we so often take for granted, such as worshipping together and living in community together. Even though we are more isolated at the moment, we can still see the heroic efforts of many, and the ways in which our care for one another continues even in difficult times. We can also look forward to when society returns to a greater sense of normalcy. I imagine it will be like the man born with blindness whose healing by Jesus is recorded in John, Chapter 9. His eyes were opened to see things around him in a new way. It gives a new light to Redeemer's theme for the year, "Come and see."

Whether you are graduating this year or returning, I pray as you journey into wherever the summer takes you, you will continue to stay close to God through His word and seek His will in your life.

Yours in Christ,
Dr. Robert J. Graham
President

"COME AND SEE..."

He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth hour.
~ John 1:39

HENRY IV

- winter play

Unfortunately, due to COVID-19, the school year ended abruptly and the play was cancelled just before production. Though the play itself was not seen by outsiders, a lot of work was put into it, and so we recognize the cast and crew for all that they accomplished.

Anno Domini is the name of Redeemer's Yearbook; it is Latin for "In the Year of Our Lord" which I believe is a fitting name for a yearbook. The purpose of this book is to have something that you can look back on in years to come and remember your time here at Redeemer.
~ Emily Talsma

Quest is Redeemer's creative arts magazine. It is filled with both visual and written art pieces created by Redeemer students.

Quest

This year the Improv Club saw a hilarious live show at The Making Box featuring a musical about Evan Helmond's day, participated in a professionally led improv workshop, and just had a generally great time.

Improv Club

Deedz

Every Friday evening, a group of Redeemer students goes downtown Hamilton to share hot chocolate with those who live there. It is a time of conversation and meeting new people.

Instrumental Ensemble

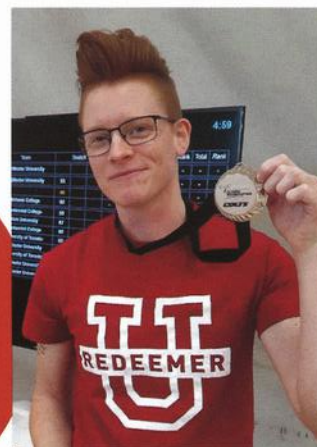

The instrumental ensemble meets at least once a week to practice chamber music. We work hard on several pieces each semester, striving to play to the best of our abilities with the musicians and instruments available.

Weightlifting

In February of 2020, Redeemer won their first ever medal in weightlifting. Thank you Denae Weibe for representing Redeemer!

Best Buddies

Best Buddies Club pairs members of the L'Arche community with Redeemer buddies, aiming to foster new, lasting friendships. We meet once a month as a group to play games, colour, eat snacks, chat, and spend quality time together.

Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding;
in all your ways submit to him,
and he will make your paths straight.

Proverbs 3:5-6

We are a people obsessed with our path. The path. Singular. Think “career” or “So, what are you gonna do after Redeemer?”

This passage gives us good news on two levels. First of all, we are invited to know God in ALL our ways or paths. Plural. We are freed from a heavy, daunting pursuit of figuring out the “one thing” God had called us to. And we are free to find God in every step we take, detour we run into, and rabbit trail we follow. We constantly run into Him in every aspect of our lives and studies - in the lab or dorm room, basketball court or classroom. Ignatius of Loyola defines discernment as “finding God in all things, that we might love and serve him in all things.” We’re not making something up, or playing pretend. We’re discovering the presence of God, because He IS there. Everywhere. With you. With me.

Not only that, but through his Spirit, he gives us his energy to accomplish each task. We don’t have to do anything alone or in our own strength. All of our mundane moments and ordinary tasks take on sacred significance when we realize that God is working with us and through us.

The other part of good news is that we aren’t the ones whose job it is to direct our paths. That’s God’s job and joy. Ours is the delightful task of trusting him with all our hearts. As we learn to see and trust God’s presence in the many areas of our lives, God directs our paths. He aligns our crooked, wandering ways. He weaves something wonderful out of the jumbled threads.

For in the end we don’t have to worry about the particular path as long as we keep close to the Guide at our side.

Study Abroad

"Spending the past semester studying at Oxford university has been an unforgettable journey ... I was able to experience places I've only ever dreamed of and made friendships and memories to last a lifetime!"

-Chelsea Cheel

Oxford

"We've spent the last three months studying Shakespeare and Drama in beautiful Oxford. It has been incredible to live in the adorable Cotswald village of Charlbury and get to take the train into Oxford every day. I think all of us in the program can say that we have fallen completely in love with England and cannot wait to come back. "

-Madison Wagter

"Sunset walks along red dirt roads with my fellow homestayors.
Shelling g-nuts and sorting maize with my mama.
Sweet potato and kale for dinner.

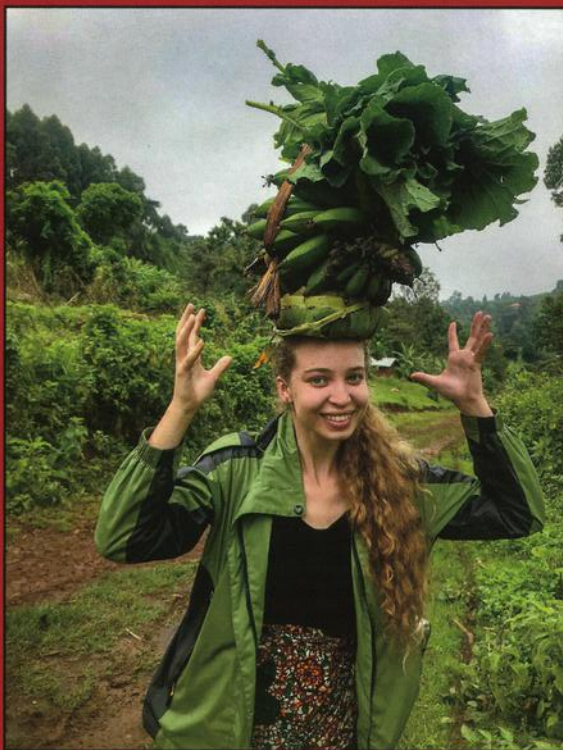

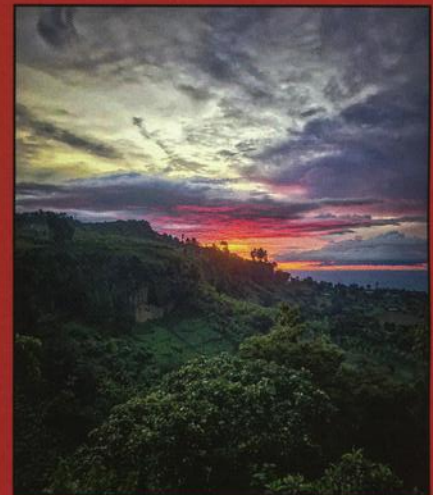

The children and boda boda men yell "mzungu!" wherever I go.
The monkeys on campus disrupt Community Worship with their pitter-pattering on the roof.

One week living in a traditional hut in the countryside.
Two hour-long commutes to Kampala for my practicum.
Three months too short ... but I treasure each and every moment in Uganda.

So, shameless plug: Uganda Studies Program is the place to be if you want to be immersed in a cross-cultural pilgrimage where you bathe in the moonlight, read good books, learn from the locals, confront privilege honestly, and live the questions."

-Monica Fennema

Uganda

"Fall 2019 I studied abroad in Uganda. I spent my semester taking classes at Uganda Christian University learning about how faith and culture inform each other as well as culture and social work. I lived with a host family and completed an internship at Refugee Law Project where I learned a lot about providing mental health and psychosocial support for refugees. We also spent time with rural host families learning about life in rural Uganda and taking a pilgrimage to Rwanda where we learned about peacemaking and reconciliation post-genocide."

-Rena Lugtigheid

Study Abroad

"The Laurentian Leadership Centre in Ottawa gave me the opportunity to further discern my calling through course work, an internship, community life, and adventures in the city. The LLC is great if you are looking for professional work experience, networking opportunities, and the chance to live in a mansion in the nation's capital!"

-Jane Gillard

Ottawa

"I attended the Laurentian Leadership Centre in Ottawa for the Fall semester and completed my Political Science degree while interning at Ensign Public Affairs. I got involved in Federal politics while in Ottawa and am now working for an MP on Parliament Hill."

-Greg Loerts

Northern Ireland

"For my winter semester, I had the opportunity to study alongside 19 other American students in Northern Ireland at the beautiful Lakeside Manor in Belfast where we studied the conflict, history, and on-going peace and reconciliation work happening in Northern Ireland. During my time in Northern Ireland, I got the chance to explore the beautiful city of Belfast, learn about the Irish culture, and build relationships with the locals and my Northern Ireland studies family. Every week, we would explore different places around Northern Ireland such as St. Patrick's first church and the Belfast Peace Wall which connected to class topics and discussions. Northern Ireland became my home away from home and I am so grateful for the memories and friendships made on this trip that will last for a lifetime."

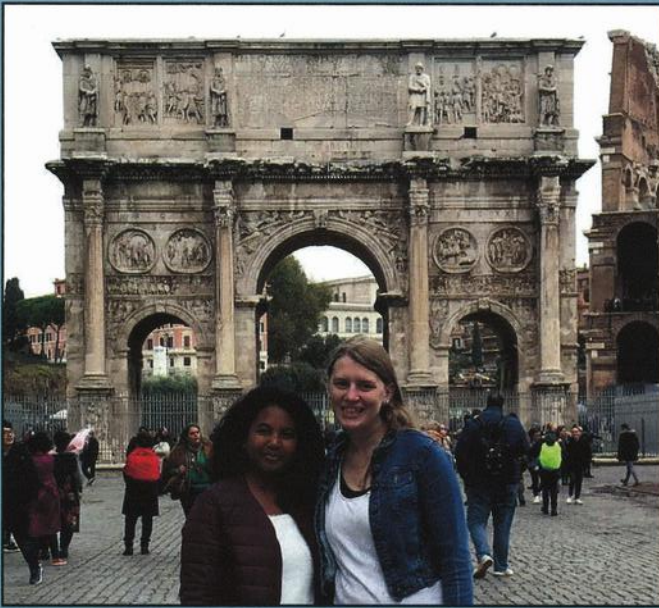

-Caitlin Joice

France

"From the start of my time in Montpellier, France, I told myself that I was going to make the most of my time there, and I can say without a doubt that I accomplished that: housing with an amazing French family, finding friends from all over the globe, stepping foot into 9 new countries (five of those within a week!), and being immersed into such a rich cultural experience. I came back with many stories to tell, a second language under my belt, and a deeper appreciation of what France has to offer."

-Jewel Klumpenhauer

"In the Fall of 2019, I travelled to the beautiful city of Montpellier. The 4 months in Montpellier has taught me to appreciate learning about French culture, living with a host family, and being in a new environment; but especially, it improved my French skills. My friends and I also had the opportunity to travel to other countries in Europe. The little doses of challenges and the personal growth that comes with studying abroad strengthened my relationship with God. I am so grateful for this incredible experience!"

This year's graduation ceremony has been postponed due to the COVID-19 pandemic. However, we remain faithful and look forward to celebrating when this crisis is over!

The Virus that Stopped the World

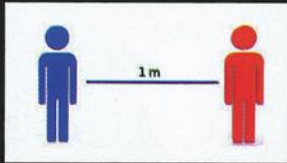

This year did not end the way anyone expected. COVID-19, also known as the Novel Coronavirus, became a global pandemic. Countries closed their borders, meetings and classes were moved online, physical distancing was practiced, events were cancelled, non-essential businesses were closed, and people were distanced. This all happened in a matter of days and at time of publication, is still ongoing. Information and protocols changed by the day, sometimes by the hour.

Countries, Provinces, Territories, Counties, and Cities declared States of emergency. On March 17, Ontario declared a state of emergency.

Never before has crossing the street to avoid another person been seen as an act of kindness.

There were worldwide shortages of personal protective equipment for medical personnel. People made homemade masks for themselves and others.
